OVERVIEW · PREVIEW, NOT OPEN FOR ORDERS

Apparel shops

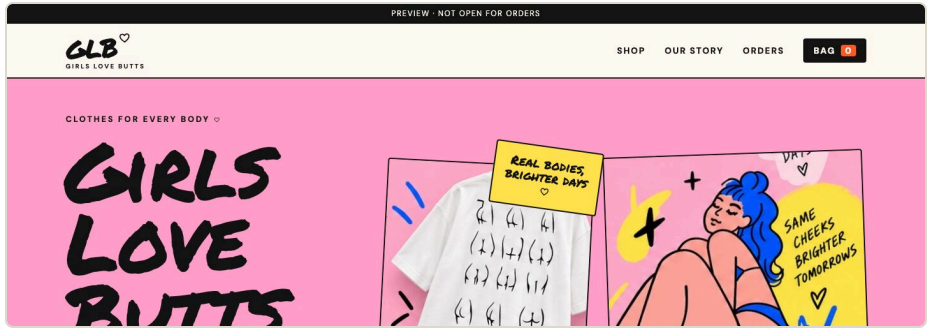

Four brand shops on one shared storefront. Each has its own layout and look; the cart, checkout, pre-order drops and order pages are shared code.

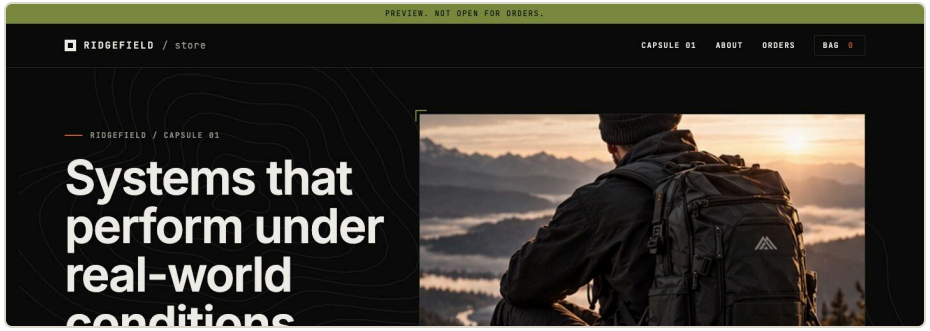

Butts Studios store.buttsstudios.com

Runwae Apparel runwaeapparel.com

Girls Love Butts (GLB) girlslovebutts.com

Ridgefield store.ridgefieldtech.com

Shared seed

One core (catalog, cart, checkout, drops, order lookup, policies); a brand is added by copying a template folder.

One focus item per shop

Everything else shows honestly: next drop (Notify me), in development, or archive.

Design rules

Chest marks medium everywhere; shirt-sized art on the back for GLB; corners 4px or less (circles only when round). Enforced by the build.

One inventory

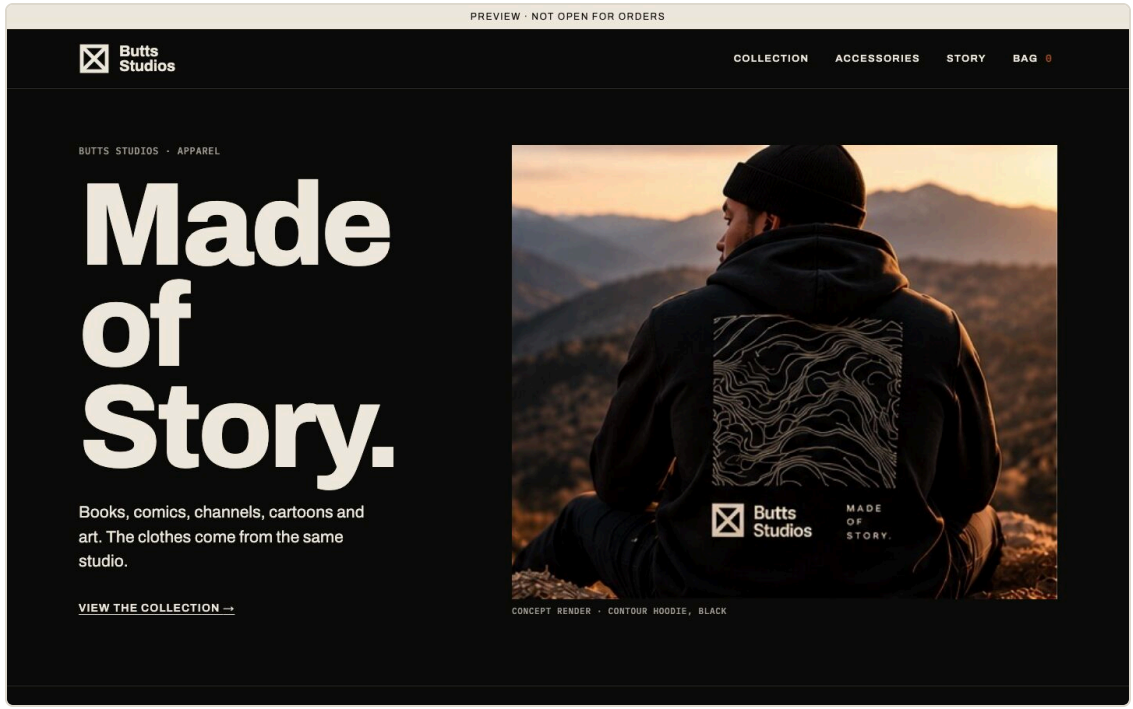

One file for all four shops: status, price, per-size stock, a stock ledger and a local admin page.

Order emails

A “New order” email to each shop and a confirmation to the customer, one shared template.

“Everyone Influences”

They influence. Under it: they notice the little things.

LOOK

v5, still identity- and story-led, now the doorway into the shop. Home: the golden-hour hero (RUNWAE / APPAREL, IDEAS · PEOPLE · PLACES · PROGRESS) with “Explore the story” and “Shop the Drawn Series”; 01 who Runwae is (“Clothes that start as drawings.”); 02 the belief (“Everyone influences.”, one line per word); 03 the art behind the clothes; then the seven pieces with Price TBA and status, and a final “Enter the shop”. Each story section ends on the piece it is worn as. Shop always visible in the header. The Story page is on palette (2021 originals in ivory frames, captioned). The Drawn Series artwork row is one treatment: cream ground, dark line. Forest, ivory, washed black, rust. Focus piece stays the Luv Thy Neighbor Hoodie.
